The Assets are depreciated in accordance with the provisions of Schedule II of the Act. Schedule II of the act requires systematic allocation of the depreciable amount of an asset over its useful life. The said schedule also requires that the useful life of an asset should not be longer than the useful life prescribed in part C of the said schedule and the residual value of an asset should not be more than five percent of its original cost. Pursuant to this policy, useful life of computers, furniture and fixture and office equipment has been taken as follows which the corresponding useful life prescribed in Schedule II:

| Class of Fixed Asset | Useful life (years) |
|---|---------------------|
| Computer Software (except PIT software) | 3 |
| Computers | 3 |
| Office equipment | 5 |
| Furniture and fixture | 10 |

Depreciation on Intangible assets (i.e. Post Investment Tracker software ('PIT')) is provided on straight line basis over a period of 36 months commencing from the month of acquisition.

All fixed assets individually costing less than Rs. 5,000 are fully depreciated in the year of acquisition.

2.4 Impairment of assets

The Company assesses at each balance sheet date whether there is any indication that an asset may be impaired based on internal/external factors. If any such indication exists, the Company estimates the recoverable amount of the assets. If such recoverable amount of the asset or the recoverable amount of the cash generating unit to which the asset belongs, is less than its carrying amount, the carrying amount is reduced to its recoverable amount. The reduction is treated as an impairment loss and is recognized in the statement of profit and loss. If at the balance sheet date, there is an indication that previously assessed impairment loss no longer exists, the recoverable amount is reassessed and the asset is reflected at the recoverable amount subject to a maximum of depreciable historical cost.

2.5 Investment

Investments are classified as long term or current based on intention of the management at the time of purchase.

Long-term investments are carried at carrying cost less any diminution in value, which is other than temporary, determined separately for each individual investment.

Current investments are valued at lower of cost or fair value. The comparison of cost and-fair value is done separately in respect of each individual investment.

Purchase and sale of investments are recorded on trade date. Profit or loss on sale of investments is determined on the basis of first in first out (FIFO).

2.6 Revenue recognition

Management Fees

Management fees (net of service tax) are recognised on an accrual basis in accordance with the terms of an investment management agreement between the Company and Trustee Company.

Other Income

Interest income is accounted on an accrual basis.

Dividend is recognized as income as and when the right to receive the same is established.

2.7 Employee benefits

Provident fund

The Company contributes to the recognised provident fund, which is a defined contribution scheme for all the employees. Provident fund dues are recognized as expenditure when the liability to contribute to the Provident fund arises under the Provident Fund Act.

Gratuity

The Company's gratuity benefit scheme is a defined benefit plan. The Company's net obligation in respect of the gratuity benefit scheme is calculated by estimating the amount of future benefit that employees have earned in return for their service in the current and prior periods; that benefit is discounted to determine its present value, and the fair value of any plan assets, if any, is deducted.

The present value of the obligation under such defined benefit plan is determined based on actuarial valuation using the Projected Unit Credit Method, which recognises each period of service as giving rise to additional unit of employee benefit entitlement and measures each unit separately to build up the final obligation.

The obligation is measured at the present value of the estimated future cash flows. The discount rates used for determining the present value of the obligation under defined benefit plan, are based on the market yields on Government securities as at the balance sheet date.

Leave encashment

The Company provides for leave encashment liability, which is a defined benefit scheme is determined based on actuarial valuation using the Projected Unit Credit Method at the balance sheet date conducted by an independent actuary.

2.8 Taxation

Current and Deferred Tax

Income tax expense comprises of current tax (i.e. amount of tax for the period determined in accordance with the income tax law) and deferred tax charge or credit (reflecting the tax effects of timing differences between accounting income and taxable income for the year).

Provision for income tax is recognised on an annual basis under the taxes payable method, based on the estimated tax liability computed after taking credit for allowances and exemption in accordance with Income Tax Act, 1961. In case of matters under appeal due to disallowance or otherwise, full provision is made when the said liabilities are accepted by the Company.

The deferred tax charge or credit and the corresponding deferred tax liabilities or assets are recognised using the tax rates and tax laws that have been enacted or substantially enacted at the balance sheet date. Deferred tax assets are recognised only to the extent that there is a reasonable certainty that the assets can be realised in future; however, where there is unabsorbed depreciation or carried forward loss under taxation laws, deferred tax assets are recognised only if there is a virtual certainty of realisation of such assets. Deferred tax assets are reviewed as at each balance sheet date and written down or written up to reflect the amount that is reasonable / virtually certain (as the case may be) to be realised.

Minimum Alternate Tax

As per the provision of Section 115JAA, MAT Credit receivable has been recognized on the basis of return of income filed for the previous years. MAT credit is recognised as an asset to the extent there is convincing evidence that the Company will pay normal income tax during the specified period. MAT credit is recognised as an asset in accordance with the recommendation contained in guidance note issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India. The said assets is created by the way of credit to the statement of profit and loss and shown as MAT Credit Entitlement. The Company will review the same at each balance sheet date and write down the carrying amount of MAT credit entitlement to the extent there is no longer convincing evidence to the effect that the Company will pay normal income tax during the specified period.

2.9 Earnings per share ('EPS')

The basic earnings per share is computed by dividing the net profit attributable to the equity shareholders by weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the reporting year.

Number of equity shares used in computing diluted earnings per share comprises the weighted average number of shares considered for deriving basic earnings per share and also weighted average number of equity shares which would have been issued on the conversion of all dilutive potential shares. In computing diluted earnings per share, only potential equity shares that are dilutive are included.

2.10 Provisions and contingencies

Provisions comprise liabilities of uncertain timing or amount. Provisions are recognized when the Company recognizes that it has a present obligation as a result of past events, it is more likely than not that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation and the amount can be reasonably estimated.

A disclosure for a contingent liability is made when there is a possible obligation or a present obligation that may, but probably will not, require an outflow of resources. When there is a possible obligation or a present obligation in respect of which the likelihood of outflow of resources is remote, no provision or disclosure is made.

Loss contingencies arising from claims, litigation, assessment, fines, penalties, etc. are recorded when it is probable that a liability has been incurred and the amount can be reasonably estimated.

Provisions are reviewed at each balance sheet date and adjusted to reflect the current best estimate. If it is no longer probable that the outflow of resources would be required to settle the obligation, the provision is reversed.

Contingent assets are not recognized in the financial statements. However, contingent assets are assessed continually and if it is virtually certain that an economic benefit will arise, the asset and related income are recognised in the period in which the change occurs

25. Contingent liabilities / Capital commitment

There are no contingent liabilities / capital commitment as at 31 March 2015 (Previous year Rs. Nil).

The Company has assessed its obligations arising in the normal course of business, including pending litigations, proceedings pending with tax authorities and other contracts including derivative and long term contracts. In accordance with the provisions of Accounting Standard - 29 on 'Provisions, Contingent Liabilities and Contingent Assets', the Company recognises a provision for material foreseeable losses when it has a present obligation as a result of a past event and it is probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation, in respect of which a reliable estimate can be made. In cases where the available information indicates that the loss on the contingency is reasonably possible but the amount of loss cannot be reasonably estimated, a disclosure to this effect is made as contingent liabilities in the financial statements. The Company does not expect the outcome of these proceedings to have a materially adverse effect on its financial results.

26. Segment reporting

The Company operates in only one business segment viz. fund management to Peninsula Realty Fund and all of its operations are in India. Accordingly, the financial statements are reflective of the information required by Accounting Standard 17 on Segment Reporting specified under Section 133 of the Act, read with rule 7 of the Companies (Accounts) Rules, 2014.
